

Hello lovely Natasha! So yeah, I've finally figured this out. It would involve Khnum and an otter of all creatures. Gotta add to the harem. :P

The unnamed otter is hoisted against the obelisk. Khnum is fucking her hard and sucking on her right tit, while the otter is in the middle of a very powerful climax. Her facial reaction should be epic.

The lovely Silverone made a concept pose for me, and she says hello. It was a rough pic, and the only changes I made to it were to have the otter's arms and claws flat against the obelisk, with her claws scratching across the stone. Hieroglyphs for the win!

Also, make the otter babe this fat.
