I. Description

A. Basically you're redrawing the b/w "original" pic, pose and all with the background of the two bottom pics. The bed is a single up against a corner wall. The floor is a dark gray metal deckplate. Falco has winged hands, not clawed. Katt is basically cornering him up against the bed, her clothes strewn about. Have her wear mercenary type clothes. Falco is clothed with an erection making a bulge.

Original pic, disregard bunk bed.

Dress him in this. Minus the rocket launcher. hehe
