I. Description

- A. Katt Monroe splitscreen stripping for soldiers with Falco Lombardi watching her in the background. Julee Gardner attempted this, but she's not online much anymore. -.- Basically you're redoing her pic, but in full glorious color.

II. Pose

- A. Follow Julee's pic as best you can in terms of placement and everything.

III. Characters

- A. Katt Monroe
 - i. Black leather bottom with credits stuffed in it.

IV. Angle & Background

- A. Follow Julee's pic.

V. Other

- A. If you have any questions, ask! ^^

These were the modifications I was gonna tell Julee to do before she threw in inks for free on her own. Still awesome. @.@

- ~~Officer insignia on right collar~~, enlisted patches on both shoulder arms, about halfway down. Yeah. I've yet to have a decent uniform reference. Maybe because their clothes are always off. ::opens original file:: imagine that. They're all enlisted. Make the wolf a chief warrant officer, surprise me with the rest of them. I'm aware most of the fine detail on the patches won't show too much.
- Fix Falco's winged fingers, needing to add one. He needs boots too. Shorten his tail feathers by half :3, and make the headfeathers a tad shorter. Kinda bothered by Falco's posture. >.> Dun think that'd be too comfortable for me :3

hmm. Pasting that saved me lots of work. Kind of outdone myself with complex scenes for this @.@

Uniform reference, yes. I know the nametape and ribbons are obscured.

There should be nothing on their right collars. They're not officers. These grade patches are on the sleeves of both arms.

Went to all the work of making these two years ago. S'about the extent of my artisticness. >.> The fine details on these won't be showing either. :P
